

Gas Tester Awareness

During this course the students will gain understanding about the hazards in confined spaces and what they can do as an authorized gas tester to make it safe.

Duration: 1 day

Location: Flexible - On-site at client's premises

Course Size: 20 delegates per 1 day course

Learning Outcomes:

- Identify the hazards of confined spaces
- Explain why we do gas testing before allowing employees to enter and work in confined spaces
- Identify the properties of hazardous gases that can be found in confined space
- Efficiently use a multi gas detector and conduct gas testing
- Understand and explain how the PTW system works
- Able to conduct gas testing on the rig site

